

Quiet Christmas for the President and Mrs. Harding

British Embassy Has Party Carrying Out Customs of Merrie England.

Special Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALD
WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—The President and Mrs. Harding expect to spend a quiet Christmas with no further ceremony than exchanging greetings with intimate friends.

Vice-President and Mrs. Coolidge have Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Stearns of Boston with them for the holidays and are busy "making Christmas" for their two young sons, John and Calvin, Jr., home from Mercersburg Academy.

The Yuletide festivities began to-night with the big Christmas party at the British Embassy for the entire personnel of the embassy and of the British delegation. It was an "all British" party. There was a giant Christmas tree with gifts piled high about its base, and the customs of Merrie England were carried out to-day, the steaming wassail being the toast of the evening. The party was held in the ballroom of the embassy, which was decorated with the most elaborate and artistic decorations of the season.

Ross Geddes, eldest son of the British Ambassador, is on his way home from Rugby to spend the holidays with his parents, and Alexander, the second son, is already here from his school in Canada. The children will have their celebration on Monday after Christmas.

The Spanish Ambassador and Senora de Riano entertained their staff at dinner and included members of the Spanish colony in Washington among their guests.

The French Ambassador and Mme. Jussurand will entertain their staff and members of the French colony at a conference dinner at dinner to-morrow.

The Belgian Ambassador and Baroness de Cartier de Marchienne will entertain their staff and the Belgian delegation at dinner to-morrow.

The Christmas feast with their embassy people.

SECOND BIG SISTERS FETE.

Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt 2d to Give Theatre Party Before Event.

Among the added attractions for to-morrow night at the second of the fete at Sherry's in aid of the Big Sisters, which have been arranged by Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt 2d and others, will be Miss Ethel Levey, who will sing at 11:30 o'clock, and the dancing at midnight of Miss Dorothy Clark and Carl Randall.

Mrs. Vanderbilt will give a large dinner party to-morrow night at the Plaza, and will take her guests to the Astor Theatre to see Mrs. Lydie Hoyt make her debut in a spoken part in "The Squaw Man." After the play Mrs. Vanderbilt will take her guests to Sherry's.

Miss Muriel Vanderbilt will have several of her young friends at supper in addition to those in her mother's party.

Among those who have engaged tables for supper to-morrow night at the fete are Mrs. and Mrs. Louis C. Clark, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Doubleday, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Prince, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer L. Schiff, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney J. Colford, Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. W. Deering Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Cooper.
